(2) In the event of such a revocation or of the death of an election agent, whether that event occurs before or during the election, or after the election but before a return of the candidate's election expenses has been lodged in accordance with the provisions of the next but one succeeding paragraph, the candidate shall appoint forthwith either himself or some other person to be his election agent, and shall give notice in writing of the appointment to the returning officer.

PART III.

DEFINITIONS OF TERMS AND REFERENCES AS TO THE VALIDITY OF AN ELECTION AND DISQUALIFICATIONS FOR CANDIDATE PRACITICES.

1. In this Part of this Order and in the First Schedule to this Order, except where it is otherwise expressly provided or the context otherwise requires—

- "agent" includes an election agent and any person who, on the trial of an election petition, is held by the Commissioners to have acted as an agent in connection with the election with the knowledge or consent of the candidate;
- "candidate" means a person who has been or claims to have been duly nominated as a candidate at any election, and a candidate who, with the election in prospect, has held himself out as a prospective candidate, shall be deemed to have been a candidate as from the time when he began so to hold himself out;
- "electoral right" means the right of a person to stand or not to stand as, or to withdraw from being, a candidate, or to vote or refrain from voting at an election;
- "returned candidate" means a candidate whose name has been published in the prescribed manner as duly elected;
- "corrupt practice", in relation to an election by the members of a Provincial Legislative Assembly to fill seats in the Provincial Legislative Council, means one of the practices specified in Parts I and II of the First Schedule to this Order, and in relation to any other election, means one of the practices specified in Parts I, II and III of that Schedule.

2. No election shall be called in question except by an election petition presented in accordance with the provisions of this Part of this Order.

3.—(1) An election petition against any returned candidate may be presented to the Governor—

- (a) by any candidate or elector on any ground;
- (b) by an officer empowered in that behalf by the Governor, exercising his individual judgment, on the ground that the election has not been a free election by reason of the large number of cases in which undue influence or bribery has been exercised or committed.

In this paragraph, "elector," in relation to a constituency and industry, mining or planting constituency, includes all the persons included in the electoral roll as the possessors of any vote, notwithstanding that only one of them is entitled to vote.

(2) A petitioner may, if he so desires, in addition to calling in question the election of the returned candidate, claim a declaration that he himself has been duly elected, but such a declaration shall only be claimed on one or other of the following grounds—

- (a) that in fact the petitioner received a majority of the valid votes; or
- (b) that but for votes obtained for the returned candidate by corrupt practices, the petitioner would have obtained majority of the valid votes.

4.—(3) Unless the Governor, exercising his individual judgment, dismisses a petition for non-compliance with the prescribed requirements, he shall, exercising his individual judgment, appoint as Commissioners for the trial of the petition three persons who are or have been, or are eligible to be appointed, Judges of a High Court, and shall appoint one of them to be the President.

Provided that nothing in this sub-paragraph shall be deemed to prevent the appointment of the President of a Commission before the other Commissioners are appointed.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, all applications and proceedings in connection with the petition shall be dealt with by, and carried on by or before, the Commissioners.

(3) Where in respect of an election in a constituency more petitions than one are presented, the Governor shall refer all those petitions to the same Commissioners, who may at their discretion inquire into the petitions either separately or in one or more groups, as they think fit.

(4) If the services of any Commissioner are not available for the purposes of the inquiry or if during the course of the inquiry any Commissioner is unable to continue to attend thereat, the Governor, exercising his individual judgment, shall appoint another Commissioner and the inquiry shall recommence before the Commission as so reconstituted:

Provided that the Commissioners may direct that any evidence already recorded shall remain upon record, and in that case it shall not be necessary to re-examine those witnesses who have already been examined and discharged.

(5) References to the Commissioners in this Part of this Order shall, as respects any matter to be done before the commencement of the inquiry, be deemed to be references to the President.

8. When on an inquiry into an election petition the Commissioners are ordered, the Advocate-General of the Province, or some person acting under his instructions, shall attend and shall take each part therein as the Commissioners may direct.

9. Subject to the provisions of this Part of this Order, Acts of the Provincial Legislature and Rules may regulate the form of election petitions, the time and manner in which they are to be presented, the persons who are to be made parties thereto, the procedure to be adopted in connection therewith and the circumstances in which petitions are to state, or may be withdrawn, and in which new petitioners may be substituted, may require security to be given for costs and may authorize the Governor, exercising his individual judgment, to dismiss petitions for non-compliance with the prescribed requirements.

T.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, if in the opinion of the Commissioners—

(a) the election of a returned candidate has been procured or induced, or the result of the election has been materially affected, by any corrupt practice; or

(b) any corrupt practice specified in Part I of the First Schedule to this Order has been committed in the interests of a returned candidate; or

(c) the result of the election has been materially affected by the improper acceptance or rejection of any nomination, or by return of the fact that any person nominated was not qualified or was disqualified for election, or by the improper reception or refusal of a vote, or by the receipt of any vote which is void, or by any non-compliance with the provisions of the Act or of this Order, or of any Act of the Provincial Legislature or Rules relating to the election, or by any mistake in the use of any prescribed form; or

(d) the election has not been a free election by reason of the large number of cases in which bribery or undue influence has been exercised or committed, the election of the returned candidate shall be void.

(2) If the Commissioners report that a returned candidate has been guilty by an agent, other than his election agent, of any corrupt practice specified in Part I of the First Schedule to this Order, but further report that the candidate has satisfied them that—

(a) no corrupt practice was committed at the election by the candidate or his election agent, and the corrupt practices mentioned in the report were committed contrary to the orders, and without the sanction or connivance, of the candidate or his election agent;

- (b) the candidate and his election agent took all reasonable means for preventing the commission of corrupt practices at the election;
- (c) the corrupt practices mentioned in the report were of a trivial and limited character or took the form of customary hospitality which did not affect the result of the election; and
- (d) in all other respects the election was free from any corrupt practice on the part of the candidate or any of his agents.

then the Commissioners may find that the election of the candidate is not void.

(5) If a person (not being entitled so to do) votes more than once at the same election, all his votes shall be deemed for the purposes of this paragraph to be void.

8.—(1) At the conclusion of the inquiry the Commissioners shall report whether the returned candidate, or any person who has lodged a petition and obtained a seat, has been duly elected and in so reporting shall have regard to the provisions of the last preceding paragraph.

(2) The report shall further include a recommendation by the Commissioners as to the total amount of costs which are payable and the persons by and to whom the cost should be paid, and any such recommendation may include a recommendation for the payment of costs to the Advocate-General of the Province or a person acting under his instructions attending the trial in pursuance of an order of the Commissioners.

(3) The report shall be signed by all the Commissioners and the Commissioners shall forthwith forward their report to the Governor, who on receipt thereof shall issue orders in accordance with the report and publish the report in the Government Gazette of the Province, and the orders of the Governor shall be final.

9. If either in their report or upon any other matter there is a difference of opinion among the Commissioners, the opinion of the majority shall prevail and their report shall be expressed in terms of the views of the majority.

10. Where any charge is made in an election petition of any corrupt practice, the Commissioners shall record in their report—

- (a) a finding whether a corrupt practice has or has not been proved to have been committed by any candidate or his agent, or with the connivance of any candidate or his agent, and the nature of that corrupt practice; and
- (b) the names of all persons, if any, who have been proved at the inquiry to have been guilty of any corrupt practice and the nature of that practice with any such recommendations as the Commissioners may think proper to make for the exemption of any persons from any disqualifications which they may have incurred in this connection under paragraphs two to five of Part IV of this Order.

Provided that no person shall be so named in the report unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause why his name should not be so recorded.

PART IV.

DISQUALIFICATIONS.

1. The offences and practices specified, in relation to certain elections, in the Second Schedule to this Order shall, for the periods respectively specified in relation to those offences and practices in that Schedule, entail disqualification for membership of any Provincial Legislature.

2. If any person—

- (a) is, in connection with an election to a Provincial Legislature, the Chief Legislative Council or a local body in British India, convicted of an offence under Chapter IX-a of the Indian Penal Code punishable with imprisonment for a term exceeding six months; or

(6) as after an inquiry under Part III of this Order reported as guilty of any such corrupt practice as is specified in Part I or Part II of the First Schedule to this Order, he shall, for a period of six years from the date of the conviction or report, be disqualified for voting at any election.

3. If, in relation to any election (other than an election by the members of a Provincial Legislative Assembly to fill seats in the Provincial Legislative Council), any person is after such an inquiry as aforesaid reported as guilty of any such corrupt practice as is specified in Part III of the said Schedule he shall be disqualified for voting at any election for a period of four years from the date of the report.

4. Where under either of the two last preceding paragraphs a person is, in connection with an election in a commerce and industry, mining or planting constituency, disqualified for voting at any election, then, if that person was at the date of the election either—

(a) included in the electoral roll for the constituency as the owner of a firm, Hindu joint family or corporation entitled to nominate persons for inclusion therein; or

(b) a member of any such firm or Hindu joint family, or a director, managing agent or manager of any such corporation, or a person authorised to sign the name of any such firm, Hindu joint family or corporation in the ordinary course of its business, the firm, family or corporation shall, for the like period, be disqualified from nominating persons for inclusion in the electoral roll of any commerce and industry, mining or planting constituency.

5. If default is made in making the return of the election expenses of any person who has been nominated as a candidate at an election to which Part II of this Order applies, or if such a return is found, either by Commissioners holding an inquiry into the election or by any court in a judicial proceeding, to be false in any material particular, the candidate and his election agent shall be disqualified for voting at any election for a period of five years from the date by which a return was required to be lodged.

6. Every person shall be disqualified for voting at any election who is for the time being disqualified for voting at elections to the Federal Legislature by reason of absence in connection with an election to that Legislature, or by reason of a default in making, or of the falsity of, any return of election expenses at any election to that Legislature.

References in this paragraph to the Federal Legislature shall until the establishment of the Federation be construed as references to the Indian Legislature.

7. Any person who is for the time being disqualified under the foregoing provisions of this Part of this Order for being a member of a Provincial Legislature, or for voting at elections, shall, so long as the disqualification exists, also be disqualified for being an election agent at any election.

8. Any disqualification under paragraphs two to five of this Part of this Order arising in connection with an election to the Legislature of, or to a local body in, a Province may be removed by the Governor of that Province in his discretion, and any other disqualification under the said paragraph two may be removed, before the establishment of the Federation, by the Governor-General in Council, and, after the establishment of the Federation, by the Governor-General in his discretion.

9. of sentencing him at once to any punishment, direct that he be released on his entering into a bond, with or without sureties, to appear and receive sentence when called upon during such period not exceeding three years as the court may direct, and in the meantime to keep the peace and be of good behaviour:

Provided that the court shall not direct the release of an offender under this section, unless it is satisfied that the offender or one of his sureties (if any) has a fixed place of abode or regular occupation in the place for which the court acts or in which the offender is likely to live during the period named for the observance of the condition:

Variation of conditions of probation and discharge of bonds created by offender

11. The court before which any offender is bound by his bond under section 4 to appear for sentence when called upon—

(a) may at any time if it appears, upon the application of the probation officer, that it is expedient that the bond or bonds executed by the offender should be varied, summon him, and if he fails to show cause why such variation should not be made, vary the bond or bonds by extending or diminishing the duration thereof (no, however, that it shall not exceed three years from the date of the original order and shall not extend beyond the date on which, in the opinion of the court, the offender shall attain the age of twenty-five years), or by altering the conditions thereof or by inserting additional conditions therein, or

(b) may, on application made by the probation officer and on being satisfied that the conduct of the offender has been such as to make it unnecessary that he should be kept any longer under supervision, discharge the bond or bonds executed by him.

Effect of variation of bond on sureties.

12. (1) When any condition in a bond has been relaxed under the provisions of section 11, the condition as so relaxed and not the original condition shall be binding on the sureties to the bond.

(2) Where any condition in a bond is made stricter under the provisions of section 11, such condition shall not be binding in the stricter form on any surety to the bond, unless he has accepted it in writing. But the condition in its original form shall continue to bind any surety who has not accepted the condition in its stricter form.

(3) Where any additional condition is imposed under the provisions of section 11, such additional condition shall not be binding on any surety to the bond unless he has accepted it in writing.

(4) No variation in, or addition to, the conditions of any bond made under the provisions of section 11, shall affect the liability of any surety to the bond in respect of any condition which has not been varied.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In 1925, the Conference of Inspectors-General of Prisons recommended the passing of a Probation Act on the lines of the English Act, viz., the Probation of Offenders Act, 1907 (7, Edw. 7, Chapter 17). This recommendation was supported by the Inspector-General of Prisons, Madras, and he was directed to prepare a draft Bill to give effect to the suggestion, but the Bill as drafted was then considered premature and the Government decided to wait till more experience was gained of the working of section 552 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

In 1928, the Government of India intimated to this Government that they intended to undertake legislation themselves and called for the views of the Local Governments. This Government while admitting the need for such legislation observed that reasonably paid probation officers should be appointed in suitable centres and agreed that legislation should be undertaken by the Central Legislature and that it should be enabling and not constitutory.* In 1931, the Government of India prepared a draft Bill and forwarded it to Local Governments for their views. This Government informed the Government of India that the draft Bill was a desirable piece of legislation and suggested some amendments to the Bill. In July 1933, however, the Government of India informed this Government that owing to pre-occupations with other important legislation they did not propose to proceed with the Bill.

3 The Conference of the Inspectors-General of Prisons held in 1935 again pressed for legislation on the subject. The Government of India referred the recommendation of that Conference to this Government and in doing so said that there was no prospect of the Government of India undertaking Central legislation but that they had no objection to such legislation being undertaken by Local Governments, if local conditions were favourable and if there was a reasonable prospect of a system of probation officers being worked in a practicable way. Though it was considered that the introduction of the probation system would be beneficial it was decided that, in view of the financial aspect of the question, the introduction of the legislation should await more prosperous times and that if the budget for the following year permitted, the question could be revived then. In January 1935, the question was once again taken up for consideration and the present Bill is the result. It is intended to try the scheme of probation of first offenders in the first instance in the City of Madras, and in a few selected mufassal areas and to extend it to other localities if it proves successful.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

1. Clause 2 is based on section 552 (1-A) but expands the application of that sub-section so as to cover all offences against any enactment whatsoever which are punishable with not more than two years' imprisonment.

2. Clause 4.—Sub-clause (1) and the proviso practically reproduce sub-section (2) of section 553 (without the proviso) and section 554 (1) of the Code.

Sub-clauses (2) and (3) reproduce section 2 of the English Probation of Offenders Act, 1907, as modified by section 8 of the Criminal Justice Administration Act, 1954. These sub-clauses bring in for the first time the idea of a special order directing that the offenders shall be under the supervision of a probation officer. The Bill refers to this order as a "supervision order" and not as a "probation order."

as in the English Acts. The former appears to be the better term and will avoid a conflict of terminology with sub-clause (1) and with section 553 of the Code which relate to what should be properly termed "probation orders."

3. Clause 5 reproduces the proviso to section 108 (k) of the Code.

4. Clause 6 confers jurisdiction on appellate courts other than the High Court.

5. Clause 7 adapts section 6 of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1907, and in sub-clauses (3) (b) and (4) imports the substance of sub-section 16 of section 7 of the Criminal Justice Act, 1925.

6. Clause 8 imports the relevant provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code relating to bonds.

7. Clause 9 is a simplification of section 3 of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1907, of section 7 of the Criminal Justice Administration Act, 1914, and of sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 of the Criminal Justice Act, 1925. The English provisions are elaborate and unsuited to Indian conditions. The draft proposed is elastic and leaves details to rules made by the Local Government.

8. Clause 10 reproduces section 4 of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1907.

9. Clause 11 adapts section 9 of the Criminal Justice Administration Act, 1914, which duplicates section 5 of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1907.

10. Clause 12 is new matter. The English Acts are silent as to the effect of the variation of the terms of a bond on the liability of the sureties to the bond, but probably it would be held that a bond is so far as it has not been varied not continue to be binding on the sureties. As regards the civil law in India, any variation in the terms of a bond, made between the principals without the concurrence of the surety, discharges the surety. There appears to be nothing analogous in Indian criminal law. This clause is intended to lay down in an exhaustive manner the effect on the surety's liability of variations in the conditions of the bonds executed by offenders.

11. Clause 13 provides for the rule-making power of the Local Government.

12. Clause 14 preserves the operation of certain enactments regarding children, youthful offenders, etc.

13. Clause 15 preserves the jurisdiction of the High Court.

BILL No. 18 OF 1930.

A Bill further to amend the Madras Children Act, 1920, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Madras Children Act, 1920, for the purposes hereinafter appearing;

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor-General has been obtained to the passing of this Act;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Madras Children (Amendment) Act, 1930.

Amendment of section 25, Madras Act IV of 1920.

2. (1) Section 25 of the Madras Children Act, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), shall be re-numbered as sub-section (1) of that section and in the sub-section as so re-numbered—

(i) after clause (b), the following word and clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“or
(c) committed to the custody of any suitable person, whether a relative or not, who is willing to undertake the care of the youthful offender, until he attains the age of sixteen years or for any shorter period:”

and

(ii) in the last paragraph, for the words “in either case,” the words, letters and brackets “in any case in which it passes an order under clause (a) or clause (b)” and for the words “under the supervision of a person named by the court,” the words “under the supervision of a probation officer or of some other person, named by the court” shall be substituted.

(2) After the sub-section as so re-numbered, the following sub-sections shall be added, namely:—

“(3) Where a court passes an order under this section placing a youthful offender under the supervision of a probation officer or of some other person, such officer or person shall, while the order remains in force, visit, advise and befriended the youthful offender and when necessary, endeavour to find him suitable employment.”

(3) The parent, guardian, relative or other person to whose custody a youthful offender has been committed, or the probation officer or other person under whose supervision a youthful offender has been placed, may, at any time while the order committing him to such custody or placing him under such supervision remains in force and while the offender is under the age of sixteen years, bring him before the court which passed the order or any other court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the youthful offender may then be residing, and such court may, if it thinks that it is desirable in the interests of the youthful offender so to do, vary the order or orders previously passed and order him to be sent to a certified school or pass a fresh order or orders under sub-section (1)."

3. In section 28 of the said Act, clauses (d) to (j) shall be relettered as clauses (e) to (k) respectively, and after clause (e), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

Amendment of section 28, Madras Act IV of 1925.

"(f) by committing the offender to the custody of any suitable person, whether a relative or not, who is willing to undertake the care of the offender; or "

4. In clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 29 of the said Act, after the words "reputed thief," the following word and clause shall be inserted, namely:—

Amendment of section 29, Madras Act IV of 1925.

"or
(e) is living in a house used for an immoral purpose or in any other circumstances calculated to cause, encourage or favour the reduction or prostitution of the child;"

5. (1) In section 30 of the said Act:—

Amendment of section 30, Madras Act IV of 1925.

(i) after the word "child" wherever it occurs, the words "or young person" shall be inserted;

(ii) the word "junior" before the words "certified school" shall be omitted; and

(iii) for the words "order him to be sent to any such school," the words "order the child or young person to be sent to a junior or senior certified school, as the case may be " shall be substituted.

(2) To the same section, the following Explanation shall be added, namely:—

"Explanation.—Where any young person is ordered to be sent to a certified school under this section, the provisions of this Act shall, so far as may be, apply to him as if he were a youthful offender."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Madras Children Act, 1920 (Madras Act IV of 1920), does not contain some useful provisions for the protection and welfare of children and youthful offenders which are found in the English Children and Young Persons Act, 1933 (25, Geo. V, Chapter 126), the Bengal Children Act, 1922 (Bengal Act II of 1922), and the Bombay Children Act, 1924 (Bombay Act XIII of 1924). The object of this Bill is to bring the Madras Act into line with the other Acts mentioned, and thus make it more effective. The necessity for the amendments is explained below.

2. Section 23 of the Act, as it stands at present, does not empower the Court to commit a youthful offender to the custody of a person who is not a relative of the child. Nor is there any provision in the section by which the person who has undertaken the custody of a youthful offender may bring him again before a Court with a view to the offender being sent to a certified school, if it is found that he fails to respond to care and treatment, or with a view to the orders previously passed being varied if circumstances requiring such variation supervene. Clause 2 of the Bill adds the necessary provisions to section 23, based on section 25 of the English Act. Clause 3 causes not a consequential change in section 23.

3. Clause 4 of the Bill seeks to amend section 23 of the Act so as to bring within its scope children who are subject to immoral influences. Such children are to be sent to a certified school or committed to suitable custody. The amendment is based on section 27 (4) of the Bengal Act and section 21 of the Bombay Act.

4. Section 20 permits the parent or guardian of an uncontrollable child under fourteen years of age to take him to Court in order that he may be sent to a junior certified school. Clause 5 of the Bill amplifies the section to cover the case of persons who are over fourteen but under sixteen years of age. Such persons are to be sent to senior certified schools.

investment

Accounts of the Fund and making up of the deficiency in the Fund.

7. (1) The accounts of the Fund shall be made up at the end of each financial year, the securities belonging to the Fund being valued at their market value on the last day of such year.

(2) If the accounts so made up show that the balance in the Fund at the end of such year falls short of forty lakhs of rupees, the deficiency shall be made up from the revenues of the Province:

Provided that if the deficiency exceeds three lakhs of rupees, it may be made up in annual instalments, the amount of each instalment except the last being not less than three lakhs of rupees.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under rule 26 of the Devolution Rules made under the Government of India Act, read with Schedule IV to those rules, the Madras Government have been maintaining a Famine Relief Fund by making annual assignments from provincial revenues as required thereon. The Fund is regarded as forming part of the general balances of the Government of India who pay at the end of each year interest on the average of the balances held in the Fund on the last day of each quarter. This interest is also credited to the Fund. The Fund can be utilised only for purposes of famine relief though when the amount to the credit of the Fund exceeds forty lakhs of rupees, the excess over that sum may be utilised for certain other purposes specified in rule 8 of Schedule IV to the Devolution Rules. The Government of India Act, 1935, contains no provision for the continuance of this Fund. When Part III of that Act comes into force, the Devolution Rules will cease to operate and the Famine Relief Fund will not, therefore, continue to exist as a statutory Fund. As a result of this change, the amount of the Fund will, on the commencement of the new constitution, merge in the general finances of the province and there will be nothing to prevent the amount being expended on ordinary services with the result that, should occasion suddenly arise for urgent and unanticipated expenditure on a large scale on famine relief, there would be no cash resources immediately available to fall back upon. In order to prevent such a result, this legislation is undertaken in accordance with a resolution of the Legislative Council passed on 3rd February 1935, with a view to remove the balance to the credit of the Famine Relief Fund and to make it continue to serve the purposes for which it was originally established. The Secretary of State for India in Council has sanctioned the necessary amendment to Schedule IV to the Devolution Rules to enable the Governor-General in Council to permit withdrawal of the balance in the existing fund, on being satisfied that an Act of the Local Legislature has made provision for the constitution of a separate fund, to be utilised only on the occurrence of serious famine or flood, of the sum so withdrawn and invested in accordance of the Government of India. It is proposed by this Bill to establish a statutory Fund called the Madras Famine Relief Fund which will practically take the place of the existing Fund. The amount to the credit of the existing Fund will be withdrawn and after setting apart what may be necessary for expenditure on famine relief, etc., during the current year, the balance will be invested in the securities of the Government of India. These securities will form the nucleus of the new statutory Fund established by this Bill. The Fund will not be expended save upon the relief of serious famine and the relief of distress due to serious drought, flood or other natural calamities; but when the balance to the credit of the Fund exceeds forty lakhs of rupees, the excess over forty lakhs may be utilized to meet expenditure on productive irrigation works and on other works for the prevention of famine. The Fund will be valued at the end of each year and if the valuation in any year shows that the Fund has fallen below forty lakhs, the Local Government will be under a statutory duty to make good the deficiency. If, however, the deficiency exceeds three lakhs, it may be made up by annual instalments each of which (except the last) will be not less than three lakhs.

21st July 1935.

8. In sub-section (1) of section 77 of the said Act, for the word and figures 'section 403', the words, figures and letters 'sections 403, 470, 474-A and 474-B' shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 77, Madras Act 1 of 1935.

9. In clause (b) of sub-section (3) of section 75 of the said Act, after the word 'presidents', the word 'vice-presidents' shall be inserted.

Amendment of section 75, Madras Act 1 of 1935.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

During the interval between the death or resignation of a president of a panchayat court and the assumption of office by his successor or during the illness of a president or his absence from the village, his functions under the Act cannot be delegated to, or exercised by, any other person, and it has been brought to the notice of the Government that this causes considerable delay in the disposal of cases by panchayat courts. It is, therefore, considered necessary to amend the Act so as to provide for the election by the panchayat court of a vice-president for the purpose of exercising the functions of the president when the office of the president is vacant or when the president is absent from jurisdiction or is incapacitated. A consequential change is also necessary in the definition of 'Village council.' Clauses 2 (b) and 5 of the Bill make the necessary changes in regard to this matter.

2. The High Court in a case decided by it—1935 Madras Weekly Notes, 352—suggested that the Legislature might make it plain what a village court can do in regard to crops as such, especially as the definitions of 'movable property' found in different enactments deal with the matter in different ways. A definition of 'movable property' as including growing crops and ungathered products has been added in section 5. A consequential provision as to the time and mode of sale of the crops or products on the basis of the first portion of section 11 of the Revenue Recovery Act, 1924, has also been added—see clause 2 (b) and 6 of the Bill.

3. There is no provision in the existing Act for the transfer of pending proceedings, civil or criminal, from one village or panchayat court to another when there is a change in the local limits of the jurisdiction of courts by virtue of action taken under section 6 or under sub-section (1) of section 7, Clause 4 of the Bill is intended to supply the necessary provision in this behalf.

1. In the decision referred to in paragraph 2 above, the High Court has also observed that the meaning of the expression 'personal property' occurring in section 13 of the Act should be made clear and that if by 'personal property' is meant only movable property, the latter expression should be employed in the section. As the intention is as stated by the High Court, it is proposed to substitute the expression 'movable property' for 'personal property' in section 13 of the Act—see clause 5 of the Bill.

2. Under section 36 (1) (b) of the Act, a panchayat court may be empowered to take cognizance, after 15th of offences under sections 510 of the Indian Penal Code. Under section 36 (2), if a panchayat court finds an accused person guilty of an offence under section 510, it may impose on him a fine not exceeding Rs. 15. The maximum penalty provided for the offence by section 510 of the Indian Penal Code is however only Rs. 10. It is necessary to bring the provision in section 36 (2) into conformity with that contained in section 510 of the Indian Penal Code. It is accordingly proposed to reduce the maximum amount of fine that could be imposed by a panchayat court under section 36 (2), in respect of an offence under section 510 to Rs. 10—see clause 7 (i) of the Bill.

3. Provision has also been made for the transfer of cases and proceedings pending before a panchayat court when such court is discontinued—see clause 7 (ii) of the Bill.

4. Under section 77 of the Act, the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure except section 430 have been expressly made inapplicable to a village court. Consequently, a panchayat court is precluded from preferring a complaint under section 476 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in respect of the offences specified therein, when they are committed in or in relation to a proceeding in the panchayat court. The High Court has suggested in a recent decision that section 77 (1) may be so amended as to permit of panchayat courts availing themselves of the provisions of that section. It is, therefore, proposed to apply section 476 as well as the consequential provisions contained in sections 476-A and 476-B to village courts—see clause 8 of the Bill.
